Catching Fire The final instalment of the 'Hunger Games' Trilogy. I honestly preferred this text on first reading, as a much younger person. I returned to the novel in audio form. The narrator is superb but the story is not quite as punchy as the first two novels. A finale, but also a culmination of what possibly seems to be the effects of PTSD on a young person.

"Catching Fire not only lived up to my high expectations, it surpassed them. It's just as exciting as The Hunger Games, but even more gut wrenching, because you already know these characters, you've already suffered with them."
